

WHAT IS IDIPPA?

The International Ductile Iron Pipe Producers Association is an organisation committed to the foundation and growth of ductile iron pipelines throughout the world.

It provides a forum for members to

- network,
- benchmark,
- share in common research,
- coordinate Standards development,
- share technical developments,

Its aim is to have all ductile iron pipe producers as members, or have national producer body representation.